Turf.

Sacramento, 15.—Third race, three mile dash, for all; entries, "Fred Collier," "Capt. Kidd" and "Nollie H." "Collier" won at a slow canter, in 5.40.

Last race, consolation purse, mile and repeat. Starters, "Atlanta," "May D," "Maria F" and "Jim Douglas." The race was run in a downpour of rain and a stiff breeze. "Atlanta" took the first heat in 1.44 1/2, "May," the second, and "Maria F." took the second and third heats in 1.47 each. "May Douglas" alternately second.

Boston, 15.—Mistic Park. Class 2.34, "Louise," 1.11; "Barrett," 2; "Island Bay," 3; "Red Bird" last. Time, 2.27 1/2, 2.28, 2.28 1/2.

Class 2.06: "Ethel Medium" won the first heat; "Onway" took the second, "Mamie" took the third and fourth, and the race was postponed till to-morrow.

Class 2.29: "Yellow Dock" won the first and second heats, "George A." the third heat, "Yellow Dock" being distanced for running. The race then postponed till to-morrow.

Boat Race.

London, 15.—At the boat race the weather was fine, and the attendance large. There was a good start, the Hillsdale taking the lead. A foul was made half a mile from the start, for which the Americans were to blame apparently; after which the Hillsdale led for two miles, then they broke a slide, and the Thames crew went to the front and finished four lengths ahead.

LATEST TELEGRAMS.

THE WAR IS OVER.

Arabi Bey in the Guard House and Everybody Else Rejoicing.

London, 15.—The war office has received the following from General Wolseyley:

BENTHA, Sept. 15. General Lowe has occupied Cairo. Arabi Pasha and Toulba Pasha have surrendered unconditionally. Ten thousand troops at Cairo have laid down their arms.

The following additional dispatch was received from General Wolseyley:

CAIRO, Sept. 15. Arabi Pasha and Toulba Pasha are both confined in our guard rooms. I will now change my base from Ismailia to Alexandria.

General Wolseyley has arrived at Cairo, from whence he sent the following:

CAIRO. The war is over. Send no more men from England. Midshipman DeClair is safe. I have been received here with open arms by all classes. The soldiers are glad to return to their homes. Our cavalry did extremely well in the long forced march yesterday.

Alexandria, 15.—The Khedive and Sir Edward Malet, British consul general, will proceed to Cairo as soon as the road is open. All offers of submission must be made to the Khedive nominally, but by actual surrender to General Wolseyley. It appears that Kafr El Dwar has not yet been occupied. Negotiations for its occupation are expected to be concluded this afternoon. The announcement that the British had entered the earthworks yesterday was a misconception. Only Generals Wood and Harman rode in with a small party, in consequence of the display of a flag of truce. Roubil Pasha, commandant of the troops at Meks, is said to be deeply implicated in the rebellion.

Alexandria, 15.—Thousands of Bedouins descended upon Kassassin camp after the battle. The Fifthi regiment drove them off with losses. Bedouins are hanging around Ismailia in great numbers.

New York, 15.—The Telegram has the following special from Tel El Kebir: The Egyptian troops crossed bayonets with the Highlanders and Irish regiments on Wednesday. The accuracy with which the Highland Brigade came into line after a seven mile march on a moonless night, in the soft desert sand, guided only by the stars, and stormed the entrenchments and redoubts on Wednesday has never been surpassed in history.

According to correspondents of the Daily Chronicle Arabi was seen riding by the village of Belbes, from the disaster at Tel El Kebir, attended by only two horsemen. The fugitive rebel leader, as he dashed past, waved his sword, red with blood, appealing to the natives with the cry "Egypt is ruined." They, however, paid no heed to him. Regarding the loss in Wednesday's engagement, no computation approaching occupancy has yet been made, but including what has been accounted by the cavalry, it cannot be short of 2,500 to 3,000. In several places bodies of Egyptians were lying in heaps of from thirty to fifty. They lay in dense rows, where the Forty-second, getting in their flank, attacked them while they were holding the position against attack in front.

Tracy Hanged.

Chicago, 15.—At precisely 2.05 p.m. James Tracy, murderer of Police Officer Auebner, expired his crime on the gallows. Long before the time appointed there was a large crowd about the jail, and the throng increased up to the appointed hour. Only about two hundred persons were, however, admitted to witness the execution. Tracy walked firmly and unassisted to the front of the gallows. At 1.35 a notice of "silence" was posted on the gallows. At 1.37 Tracy, accompanied by Father Dawling and two other priests, Sheriff Mann and Jailor Falt, walked up the steps of the scaffold. The noose was adjusted, the black cap placed over his head and Sheriff Mann, giving the signal, the trap sprung and the body, with a drop of six feet, swung off into the air.

Tracy's last night was spent mostly in devotions. He slept little for the past forty-eight hours. He was not without devoted friends, who were with him to the last, and gave him many tokens of sympathy. When informed that the supreme court and the governor had refused to interfere, his firmness gave way for a time, but he soon recovered, and his protestations of innocence continued from time to time until the very last.

The President.

Newport, R. I., 25.—President Arthur arrived in the East River this afternoon.

Obituary.

London, 15.—Sir John Alderson, physician extraordinary to the Queen, is dead.

Star Routes.

Washington, 15.—In the star route cases, Henkle, Miner's counsel, filed affidavits for a new trial. Merrick said the various affidavits claimed the verdict unreasonable. As counsel for government he was not disposed to give consent to the motion, but felt it my duty to oppose it.

Government itself is not entirely satisfied by any means with the verdict, which permits the masters to retreat and convict the servants and minions. It was apparent to all that, guilty as were Reredell and Miner, their crime was the scheme and device of others. Government cannot consistently with its dignity give practical resistance to the motion to set aside such a verdict and bring to trial again both masters and servants, that full justice may be done. Government seeks no victim, but simply justice, and when a verdict apparently trifles with justice, government cannot approve it. Henkle read the grounds on which he based the motion for a new trial, and read Dickson's statement. The court stated that he had directed the jury not to converse on the bribery. Dickson's affidavit did not say whether the injunction had been dissolved. Henkle argued that the verdict should be set aside on the ground that the jury was tampered with. The court room was dotted with spectators hired to shadow the jury, counsel and witnesses, some of them the vilest men in Washington, in the service of government. Merrick asked if there was any affidavit to that effect. Henkle said he would furnish proof. Merrick said "This approach on Dickson was gotten up by the defendants." (Here occurs a break in the dispatch.) These two men seem to be the two ends of the line. It did not seem to my mind that they could have gone into a conspiracy without having had others along with them; but the jury thought they could, and I would not have disturbed the verdict on that point, but I saw the verdict was made up by a jury that were discussing other matters that were in evidence. Of course my duty is plainly to set the verdict aside. As to the acquittal of Peck, who is dead, I hope he is acquitted everywhere. We were not trying him. As to Turner, of course, the verdict stands. The court grants a new trial, therefore, as to all, except Turner and Peck. Miner and Reredell were then released on $10,000 bail each. Vaile and Williamson being sureties for the former and A. Richards for the latter. December 4th is fixed as the date for a new trial.

The court adjourned.

Political Murder.

Truckee, 15.—J. B. Campbell, republican nominee for sheriff of Silver County, was shot and instantly killed by a man named Stubbs at Randolph, in Sierra Valley, this afternoon. The murder was surmised to be on account of a bitter political contest in that county. Over 200 men are scouring the country in search of the murderer. The particulars of the murder at Randolph, are that on account of an excited political canvas, a friend of Campbell, named Cody had an altercation with Stubbs, a day or two ago. To-day Campbell sought Stubbs to effect a reconciliation. He apparently failed in the effort and turned to walk away when Stubbs ran up behind and fired, without notice, the ball taking effect in the stomach. During the excitement that followed Stubbs escaped. If recaptured lynching is almost certain. Stubbs is a man aged 22, and has heretofore enjoyed the respect of the community.

Miscellaneous.

Terre Haute, 15.—The annual convention of the brotherhood of locomotive firemen, which has been in session here since Monday, adjourned at noon to-day to meet on the second week in September, '83, at Denver, Col.

New York, 15.—Dwight S. Lathrop, assistant cashier of the New Jersey Central Railroad, has absconded with $10,000 of the company's money. His uncle, Judge Lathrop, then receiver, was lately appointed. The deficit was discovered a week ago. He disappeared with a woman.

Williston, S. C., 13.—Lynchers hung a negro, Nathan Bennett, and riddled the body with bullets. He tried to rape a little white girl, and confessed in jail.

Washington, 15.—The President has appointed Andrew J. Frazer United States attorney for Colorado. Camden, 15.—Republicans of the First District nominated George M. Robeson for Congress by acclamation.

Louisville, 15.—Six hard characters escaped jail to-day.

Troy, 15.—Some excitement is caused by the sudden resignation of Cashier McClington, of the Manufacturers' National Bank. It is understood he lost over $100,000 by speculation in Wall street, and that he was indebted to the bank for $15,000. The bank has a surplus of over $100,000. A few depositors called for their deposits and were promptly paid. S. O. Gleason is appointed cashier. He is a prominent man and of large wealth.

POOR PERU

B. Cody Sabarittes by Peruvian Guerrillas

Horrible Tales of Rape and Slaughter.

Panama, 7.—A Chilean correspondent writes the Star and Herald, that when the inhabitants of Tarma learned that the Chilean forces were to leave, a large majority of Peruvian families were allowed to accompany them in order to escape the depredations of their lawless countrymen. Only some foreign families, believing the guerrillas would respect them, decided to remain. Fully 500 women followed the army. Just five hours after the troops left immense hordes of guerrillas poured in. There were 600 armed with rifles and equipped like regulars who entered, they formed in a column, followed by about 300 guerrillas armed with sticks, clubs and lances and similar weapons, who entered pell mell, shouting vociferously. On it being known that all the well-to-do and decent families had left the town, the fury of the Indians knew no bounds. Residences were stripped and those of many foreign residents shared the same fate. Many assassinations followed and among the victims were eighteen foreigners. In the midst of the drunken orgie, Tarma was reduced to ruins with the object of burning the properties of foreigners and Chileans. Tamaro and all the town was burned. The cities of Janja and Huanacho shared the fate of Tarma. The names of some of the foreigners assassinated are given: two Italians, named Mattos, and two Germans named String and Sahalk are among the slain.

Four soldiers and six fugitive Peruvians were frozen to death in the Cordilleras, at Concepcion. The Chilean garrison made a noble defense against the Indians when the ammunition of the Chileans was exhausted. The assailants secured paradise and fired the barracks, burning some of the wounded soldiers. Captain Pinto and a few survivors at the garrison made a sally, cut down the enemy and cleared the front and sides of the barracks, while the men inside extinguished the flames and removed the wounded to a place of safety. In another sally Captain Pinto was shot dead. The Indians again fired the building, and sallies were organized by sub-Lieutenants Mauti, Cruz and Peiez. In one of the earliest sallies the first mentioned officer was mortally wounded. Subsequently Lieut. Peiez fell wounded. In another sally a young officer was immediately pounced upon by a horde of Indians who lanced him to death. At this hour five friars from the neighboring convent of Ocapa appeared on the scene, and with crucifix in hand incited the Indians to renew the attack on the building. At 10 o'clock, of the 77 Chileans composing the garrison only four, and two of them wounded, remained to offer resistance, the others were either dead or dying, and the buildings were now ablaze in every direction. Four women, the wives of soldiers, were eyewitnesses to the death of their husbands, one of them, accompanied by her son, 5 years old, another by an infant who had come into the world at the commencement of the attack, and after the removal of the wounded from the burning building went out into the square, hoping that their lives would be spared. They had barely stepped outside the building when they were set on by a crowd of drunken savages and horribly butchered. The 5-year-old boy had his throat cut from ear to ear, and was barbarously mutilated, and the body of the newborn child was found pierced with six lance wounds. Sub-Lieutenant Cruz and the surviving soldiers were also surrounded and they fell one after another, but not until they had sold their lives dearly. When other Chilean troops arrived, a few days afterwards, they found in the square and adjacent streets, 200 of the enemy's dead. The wounded were doubtless twice that number, and were carried off into the hills. The Chilean dead were collected and buried. The city was burned, and everybody implicated in the massacre, who could be found, was summarily executed.

Mining Shares.

New York, 15.—Mining stocks dull. Silver Cliff sold at 95 to 85. Con. Virginia sold 120@115; Robinson, 115, and Caledonia B. H. advanced from 115 to 60. Sales for the day, 75,535 shares. Petroleum, firm: united 98%, crude 67@77, refined 74@77, lake 18; Australian tin 25 1/2; copper quiet.

Yellow Fever.

Brownsville, Texas, 15.—The river is rising. About one-fourth of the town is under water. There are twenty-two new cases of fever; no deaths. Sick at Fort Brown are doing well. One death at Point Isabel to-day from fever; six deaths in Matamoros. Our mornings are very cool and days hot, which causes many relapses.
